

IACS Choir Newsletter

November 2019

Hello choir students and parents! We had a GREAT first round of concerts in October and are already hard at work on our music for our December concert. This is always one of the most "looked-forward-to" concerts of the year. We will be performing again this year in the beautiful Jewett Auditorium at the College of Idaho. Join us for songs of the season that are sure to leave you smiling!

CONGRATULATIONS, IACS All-State Singers!

The following students auditioned and were selected to be a part of the Idaho All-State Choirs at the end of January with the top singers from across the state. They will rehearse for a few days with a nationally-renowned clinician and then put on a showcase concert.

Middle School: Samantha Blakley, Gracie Franklin, Grace Gibson, Chloe Hill, Karina Jenkins, Gracee Kelly, Mae Kuhn, Owen Mattravers, Abby McDonald, Cassandra Pentilla, Lindsey Picazo, Kendall Pippin, Kinsey Selander, Kenzie Thompson, Jersi Tomich, Adelynn Wall, and Adam Worthen.

High School: Sophia Bernal, Sophia Conta, Julie Dingeldein, Anna Montano, Destinie Sanchez, and Eli Smith.

An extra CONGRATULATIONS goes out to Eli Smith, who auditioned and was also chosen to be a part of the Northwest ACDA Honor Choir in March with the top singers from Alaska, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming and Montana! Way to represent IACS!

Popcorn Fundraiser

This month, IACS choir students have the opportunity to sell gourmet popcorn as a fundraiser for their individual choir accounts and the choir program.

Order forms will be sent home the week before Thanksgiving Break. Forms will be due on Monday, December 2nd and the product will be available for pickup on Thursday, December 19th in time to deliver for the holidays.

Lots of PRIZES will be available for those who take part (on top of the money they will earn for their choir accounts)! Watch for more information coming home soon!
